

Easter in Santorini

Easter is the beginning of the Summer season for Santorini.
But first of all, Easter is a great Orthodox holiday for people in Santorini.
Many Easter customs have been preserved for many years.

- The red textiles at the balconies every Maundy Thursday,
 - the smell of "tsoureki" and "melitina" a local dessert especially cooked for Easter,
 - the streets of Pyrgos (a village on the mountain) lighten by thousands of oil-lamps on Good Friday, and
 - the meeting of the two Epitaphs, in the central square of Fira
- are only a sample.

The Easter atmosphere and customs in combination with the shining Spring, makes Easter in Santorini an experience to live!
