

Athinios Port

In Athinios port, all the ferryboats and big cruise boats arriving from the other ports of Greece. As a major tourist destination it has daily connection from Piraeus, Paros, Naxos, Ios and Crete, with at least four boats. There are also three ferries weekly running to all other islands of the Cyclades. The port has 3 ramps where the ferryboats can lay up and 3 points for the tankers. A switchback road leading you to the main street of the island. Buses for Fira meet all ferries, even late at night and leave Fira for the port 1 hour before most ferry departures.
